Standard Stories.

Mrs. J. L. Maull and Mr. Will Mauli have returned from a two weeks' visit at Boynton on the east coast.

R. O. Burton is packing and shipping tangerines this week from the old Burton & Harrison tangerine grove, now his property.

Dr. Sanduskey brought his traps over from Welaka last week and with some sportively inclined friends indulged in a clay pigeon shoot on the golf grounds.

The groves near Hammond, six miles south of this place, in charge of Mr. Sam Varnes, and owned by several of our winter visitors, are said to be making fine headway. That belonging to Mrs. J. L. Overstreet has quite a fine crop of tanger-

Mrs. S. M. LaBree exhibited last week one of the largest specimens of roses we have ever seen. The rose was a delicate pink in shade and was grown in her own rose garden, which, by the way, gives promise of soon being one of the prettiest sights in Crescent City.

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Driver entertained for several days last week Mr. W. B. Driver a leading mer chant of Selma, N. C. who is an older brother of our townsman. He seemed quite pleased with our clinate as compared with the raw atmosphere of North Carolina.

The steamer Crescent carried 1295 boxes of oranges from Crescent City last week. The total for the season will prebably foot up from 7,000 to 9,000. Capt. J. W. Miller has been a neavy shipper and yet to go through his place and see the trees one would hardly suppose any of the fruit had been picked.

Two miles south of Crescent City on the Seville road is the site of the battle of Braddock's Farm, the only battle fought in this neighborhood during the civil war. The spot is a clearing, located on high ground and is close to the roadway. The confederate forces under Gen Dickson won the day.

J. H. Campbell of Plainfield, N. J. is here, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Neal. Mr. Campbell bas

Thirty-six years of continuous success

Just think what that means. Thirty-six years in business, each year more successful than the previous one, with never a backward movement, constantly growing larger, ever increasing in popular favor. How many concerns in this country have such a proud record? How many that were doing business thirty-six years ago are even in existence doing business thirty-six years ago are even in existence doing? Very, very few. But thirty-six years of continuous success and still growing larger. Think of it! How has it been accomplished? In just this way. By selling absolutely pure whiskey, direct from our own distillery to the consumer, with all its original richness and flavor, saving him the enormous profits of the dealers, and by carrying out to the letter every statement or offer that we make, thereby creating a confidence with our over a quarter of a million satisfied customers that cannot be broken.
